Joint Stipulation and [Proposed] Order Regarding Continuance of January 24, 2013 Case Management Conference

1 The parties to this action—plaintiff ADC Technology, Inc. (“ADC”) and defendants Palm,
 2 Inc. and Hewlett-Packard Co. (collectively, “Palm”—respectfully submit this stipulation, requesting 3 that the Court continue the Case Management Conference previously scheduled in this action for 4 January 24, 2013 to a date in May 2013, or an alternative future date that is convenient to the Court.

5 Good cause exists for this requested continuance of the Case Management Conference, since 6 (a) this action is presently stayed pending reexamination of the patents-in-suit by the United States
 7 Patent and Trademark Office (“PTO”) and (b) there has not yet been a final determination of the 8 reexamination of the patents-in-suit, as set forth below:

- 9     ▪ This is a patent case in which the plaintiff, ADC, asserts three patents—namely, U.S.
 10       Patent Nos. 6,985,136 (the ““136 patent”), 7,057,605 (the ““605 patent”) and 7,567,361 11       (the ““361 patent”) (collectively, the “patents-in-suit”).
- 12       ▪ In mid-2011, pursuant to a third-party request, the PTO ordered reexamination of each of 13       the three patents-in-suit.
- 14       ▪ In July 2011, defendant Palm filed a stipulated motion to stay this case pending final 15       determination of the reexamination of the patents-in-suit by the PTO. (See Docket 16       No. 68.) Plaintiff ADC stipulated to this stay motion. (Id.)
- 17       ▪ On July 25, 2011, the Court granted the stipulated stay motion and ordered that “[t]his 18       action is stayed pending final determination of the reexamination of the patents-in-suit”
 19       by the PTO. (See Docket No. 70.) In its order, the Court instructed the parties to advise 20       the Court when the PTO has issued a final determination on reexamination. (Id.) In 21       addition, the Court set a case management conference for May 11, 2012, which was 22       subsequently re-set for May 18, 2012. (Id.)
- 23       ▪ In May 2012, defendant Palm and plaintiff ADC filed a joint stipulation requesting 24       continuance of the case management conference until a date in September 2012, noting 25       that there has not yet been a final determination of the reexamination of all of the patents-26       in-suit and indicating agreement that a continued stay in this action was appropriate. (See

1 Docket No. 72.) The Court thereafter granted the stipulated request and re-set the case
 2 management conference for September 28, 2012. (See Docket No. 73.)

- 4 ▪ In September 2012, defendant Palm and plaintiff ADC filed a joint stipulation requesting 5 continuance of the case management conference until a date in January 2013, again 6 noting that there has not yet been a final determination of the reexamination of all of the 7 patents-in-suit and indicating agreement that a continued stay in this action was 8 appropriate. (See Docket No. 74.) The Court thereafter granted the stipulated request
 9 and re-set the case management conference for January 25, 2013. (See Docket No. 75.)
- 10 ▪ In December 2012, the Clerk issued a notice resetting the case management conference
 11 for January 24, 2013. (See Docket No. 76.)
- 12 ▪ There has not yet been a final determination of the reexamination of all of the patents-in-13 suit. Although the PTO issued a reexamination certificate for the '136 patent in 14 December 2011, the reexamination proceedings that the PTO initiated in mid-2011 on the 15 '605 and '361 patents remain ongoing. And in addition to the reexamination proceedings
 16 initiated by the PTO in mid-2011, the PTO has initiated additional reexamination
 17 proceedings on the '136, '361, and '605 patents in July, November, and December 2012,
 18 respectively. Reexamination proceedings for all of the patents-in-suit thus remain 19 ongoing.
- 20 ▪ The parties presently agree that (a) this action should remain stayed pending a final 21 determination of the reexamination of the patents-in-suit and (b) the Case Management 22 Conference should be continued to a date in May 2013, or an alternative future date that 23 is convenient to the Court. The parties further agree that if any of the reexaminations are 24 completed before the rescheduled Case Management Conference, either party may file a 25 motion to have the stay lifted, and the other party may oppose the motion.

26 In view of the foregoing, the parties respectfully request that the Case Management
 27 Conference previously set for January 24, 2013 be continued to a date in May 2013, or an alternative 28 future date that is convenient to the Court.
